

Condolence Message

Prof. Sanjay K Biswas of IISc, Bangalore

“Tribology Society of India announces with profound grief the sad and untimely demise of Prof. Sanjay K Biswas on 28 April 2013 at Bengaluru. Prof Biswas, the doyen of Indian tribology, was a globally respected figure who put Indian Tribology on the world map. He was a great patron of TSI since its inception. With his passing away we have lost one of the finest minds in Indian Tribology education and research.

The Executive Committee and all Member of TSI convey their deepest condolences to the bereaved family of Prof. Biswas. May the departed soul rest in eternal peace.’
